"Submission Requirements" and "Terms of Submission (Precautions)" are as follow. Please read them carefully before your entry.

Terms of Submission (Precautions)

1. Entries need to be filmed within Kumamoto prefecture and produced by the entrant.
2. Submissions must not be published or released on the internet (including on social media).
3. Videos showing only slideshows of photographs are not acceptable. Moving images must comprise at least 2/3 of the video. Photos (static images) are acceptable, but only as a part of the work.
4. Include explanations (subtitles) or narration of the filmed scenes to make it easy to understand where and what you filmed. (This is one of the key points for the judges.)
5. Please understand that even those submissions that do not win an award may be used for promotional purposes by the Consortium Kumamoto. Please only include material in your videos that does not violate copyright laws.
6. When people or authored works (including paintings, photographs, works of art, etc.) appear in videos, please make sure to obtain the author's consent. Please understand that in the unlikely event that a claim of copyright (or copyright -related) infringement, or usage of one's likeness without consent is made, the organizers take no responsibility, and the responsibility to resolve the issue shall be taken by the entrant.
7. Ensure that video submissions do not defame or injure others, and are not related to nor encourage, or any sort of illegal activity. Ensure that submissions do not contain any kind of indecent or obscene language, or any content that is not in accordance with public standards of morality and decency.
8. Should any submissions be determined to be in violation of those terms, otherwise found to be inappropriate by the organizers or judges of the contest, the submission will be disqualified. Additionally, should a winning entry be found to be in violation of these terms, the prize may be cancelled.
